PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

TRIED FOR MURDER.

THE PLATTENBURG CASE AT LEXINGTON.

IT WAS TAKEN UP TO-DAY.

Both Sides Announced "Ready," and Adjournment Taken Until Wednesday.

Special to the DEMOCRAT.

LEXINGTON, Mo., June 5.—The case of the State vs. Harvey W. Plattenburg, charged with the murder of David M. Gray, a special policeman, September 29, 1892, was called in the Lafayette county criminal court here to-day before Judge John E. Ryland. Both sides announced ready for trial and the case was then continued until 2 o'clock Wednesday. About sixty witnesses have been summoned, and the case will be bitterly contested.

The defense will take the forty-eight hours allowed by law in making challenges and the trial proper will not begin before Thursday. It will occupy the remainder of the week and possibly longer.

The case will be prosecuted by County Attorney Wm. Aull, while W. H. Wallace, of Kansas City; John S. Blackwell, J. D. Shewalter, R. A. Hicklin and John D. Welborn, of Lexington, and Col. Thos. P. Hoy, of Sedalia, will appear for the defendant.

The Crime.

On the day of the double killing there was a circus in town, and Plattenburg came from his home near Dover to attend it. En route to the circus grounds, he and a friend stepped into Nick Haerl's saloon, known as "Fort Haerl," where they met James McDowell, a single man about 50 years of age. McDowell and Plattenburg were not good friends, having quarreled some time previously, and when they met in the saloon the quarrel was renewed. According to the testimony introduced at the coroner's inquest, McDowell started to take off his coat.

David M. Gray, a special policeman, was standing near by and came forward with a view to quelling the disturbance. A scuffle ensued, during which two shots were fired, Plattenburg having drawn his pistol. In the melee McDowell was shot and instantly killed, the bullet piercing the upper edge of the heart, while Mr. Gray received a wound in the abdomen, about two inches above and to the left of the navel, from which he died that night at 9:20 o'clock. During the scuffle Plattenburg was badly beaten up about the head and face, there being five scalp wounds, one on the face, one in the mouth and one in the left hand.

Plattenburg was arrested by Officer Frank Barnett, of Sedalia, and was committed to jail. At the March term of court Plattenburg was indicted for murder in the first degree in both cases, and a strong effort to secure his release on bond failed.

Mr. Plattenburg belongs to one of the most respected families in the county, has an excellent reputation, is a brother of Hon. J. Q. Plattenburg, member of the county democratic committee, and a brother-in-law of the late Maj. John N. Edwards. He is also an old newspaper man, having been connected with the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, St. Joe Gazette and Sedalia Dispatch. He is unmarried and about 45 years old.

James McDowell, one of the victims, was born and raised near this city and was a single man about 50 years old. His father was at one time sheriff of this county.

David M. Gray, the second victim, had been a resident of Lexington for a number of years, was in his 39th year, a married man, and left a wife and five children. He was highly esteemed and respected by our citizens, having many friends, and for several years represented the Fourth ward in the city council.

County Court in Session.

County court met to-day, all the judges being present. In the matter of selecting a county depository, bids were received from three banks, as follows: People's bank of Sedalia, 3 3/4 per cent interest on daily balances; Lamonte bank, 2 1/2 per cent; Houstonia bank, 2 1/2 per cent.

Still at Large.

Grubbs, Umbles and the two Patton boys who escaped from the county jail are still at large. Sheriff Porter, Deputy Sheriff Robt. Ramsey and others are still in pursuit. The fugitives have been seen in the vicinity of Windsor and are being closely tracked through the fields and woods. The three negroes can outrun Grubbs, but he manages to keep near them by following the trail. It is a question of only a short time until all of them are again captured.

The latter already has a large practice, and bears the reputation of having been exceedingly successful in curing cancers.

There has been no part of our business that has caused us more trouble and loss than the vegetable department.

One day we would buy too much and have it to throw away at night, and the next day we would not purchase enough and would disappoint our customers by not being able to supply them.

To overcome this difficulty we have, at a great expense, put in one of Derrill's patent Fruit and Vegetable safes. They are manufactured at St. Paul, Minn., and are the most successful thing of the kind we have ever seen. It is a large safe enclosed on all four sides with glass, thus insuring perfect cleanliness, and an atomizer placed in the top throws a fine spray of water all the time thus keeping the contents fresh and tempting.

It will have to be seen to be appreciated. A cordial invitation is extended to all to call and see it.

THE DEMOCRAT,
Sedalia, Mo.

OFFICE: 307 Ohio St. Telephone 232.

Official Paper of the City of Sedalia.

GIVE South Sedalia a sewer.

PUSH the campaign for better sidewalks.

A LITTLE more energy in street improvements is needed.

THE advertisers seem determined to make us enlarge the DEMOCRAT again.

THERE is about as much probability of the Missouri river going dry as there is of a bridge being built across it at Jefferson city.

THERE is less complaint of hard times in Sedalia than in any other town in the state. This is because of the universal confidence in the city's future.

COLMAN'S Rural World wants to know "where the hogs are." Latest information indicates that they all went to Chicago early in the year and secured franchises from the World's Fair management.

THE marked increase in the advertising in the DEMOCRAT in the past two months, great as it has been, has not kept pace with the increase in circulation. For these evidences of public confidence and public favor the DEMOCRAT feels deeply grateful.

A VERY small crowd attended the World's Fair yesterday. The United States display, as well as that made by Missouri and several other states, was closed. Many of the individual displays were also closed, the men in charge objecting to working seven days in the week.

THE DEMOCRAT hopes that the rumor that 30,000 miners are to become involved in the strike begun recently in Kansas, is an exaggeration. Such a costly misfortune should be prevented if possible. The loss to the business community can only be appreciated by those business men who have witnessed such strikes.

THE DEMOCRAT is glad to see the interest taken in the sewerage question and the earnest movement for a sewer district south of Broadway. To a large extent the prosperity and growth of a city depends upon the zeal displayed by the citizens in providing needed public improvements and nothing is more desirable than the cleanliness that can only be maintained by building sewers to drain the city.

THOSE newspapers which have so maligned the south because negro rapists were hanged by enraged mobs have a chance now to dress up Illinois in the same style. The punishment meted out to the brutal fiend at Mt. Zion was as swift as any administered in the south and shows that it is the crime and not the geographical location that causes men to resent wrongs of that character.

A DISPATCH from Topeka says that Rainmaker Jewell claims credit for the tremendous downpour of rain over the territory from Wichita to the Missouri river. If Jewell succeeds in establishing the truth of his claim, he had better keep clear of the farmers of the Missouri Valley whose fields have been too wet to plow for so long. These rains may be needed in Kansas, but they must not be allowed to interfere with Missouri cornfields.

THE Philadelphia Times warns country girls not to leave their homes to seek employment in the city, and truthfully says: "Girls, don't stay away from home unless you have to. Find something to do that will allow you to join your family every night. The great city is a cruel, merciless place for a girl without friends, and though the thought of the large salary may be alluring, believe us when we tell you that before such sums are won there must be a long apprenticeship of hard work."

QUIT KICKING.

The course which the Springfield Democrat is pursuing toward the north and south railroad is unworthy of a newspaper as able, enterprising and progressive as our contemporary.

The north and south road has not progressed as rapidly as Springfield and Sedalia wished.

But is it the fault of the leaders of the enterprise?

If the course they have pursued is not the road to success let the Democrat point out the right way. Talk is cheap, but railroad building costs money.

It is easy to say that the road should be built, but it is not so easy to secure the hundreds of thousands of dollars necessary to build it.

This paper does not believe that the Springfield Democrat wishes to defeat the building of the road.

But we do believe that the man or paper that attempts to tear down should be prepared to build up.

And hence, if the Democrat desires the business men of Springfield and Sedalia to withdraw from the enterprise, it should propose to them a plan that shows a better prospect for success.

If any gentleman will take charge of the work of building the north and south road and agree to go to work in good faith and build it, we do not believe the gentlemen at the head of the present project will antagonize them.

On the other hand we believe the officers and directors and promoters of the proposed road would lend practical aid and encouragement to any gentleman who feel able to do better work or more rapid work than they have done.

The enterprise is too important to permit misunderstandings and misrepresentations to defeat it.

It is a project of too much value to the business men and property owners of the two cities to permit a disgruntled newspaper to interfere with its success.

In all kindness we urge our Springfield namesake to stop and take its bearings and be sure it has something better to offer in place of the movement it seeks to obstruct and destroy.

CAPTURING MOONSHINERS.

The Difficulty of Bringing These Desperate Characters to Justice.

United States Marshal T. H. McKinney, of Jefferson City, is in the city to day visiting his son-in-law, Joe Kolkmeier, agent of the American express company. Mr. McKinney is a gentleman of much experience, but says that the recent laws regarding the fees for marshals has made the business a very unremunerative one.

In a conversation with him, he stated that at present there was much violation of the revenue laws in the state, particularly in Laclede, Camden and Ozark counties. Moonshining flourishes down there and it is practically impossible to make arrests. The people are a class who are in sympathy with the illicit distillers and are given free whisky to keep quiet. Many of the moonshiners are men from the mountainous districts of Kentucky and Tennessee, where they and their fathers before them did nothing but make tanglefoot whisky. The revenue officers in those states are courageous and persevering, and as a result many fights ensue in which the hands of the moonshiners often become stained with blood. With a price upon their heads they escape into the lower tier of counties of Missouri, where they become even more dangerous, as they realize that capture means death.

In the caves and gorges of this rough country they ply their business with little fear of capture. From a bushel of corn they can make three gallons of whisky from which they realize about $3 per gallon. This is sold to cross road drug stores and peddled in wagons at picnics and dances. Their stills are small and can be transported in wagons from place to place. When too hard pressed, the men escape into Arkansas and the Indian territory.

Officers are handicapped in every possible manner. Their salary is not sufficient to induce them to risk their lives, and it is difficult to secure information. The only successful way is to go among the people dressed in ragged clothes, imitating the people as far as possible, and secure work as a tie cutter or a farm hand. In this manner their confidence is sometimes obtained. When a capture is made it means death to the officer unless he gets out of the country in a few hours. The friends of the prisoner will lay in ambush and shoot down the officer at the first opportunity. Marshal McKinney says that the work of officers in that state is very unsatisfactory at present.

THE CYCLERS MEET.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE NEAR-ING COMPLETION.

OFFICERS ANNOUNCED.

A Large Attendance Expected and a Delightful Programme Is Assured.

On July 2, 3 and 4 the L. A. W. meet will be held in Sedalia and the members of the Sedalia Cycle Tournament association are all busy and hustling to make the affair a tremendous success. Referring to the meet, the St. Louis Post-Dispatch of Sunday says:

These annual meets of the Missouri division have become such an important factor in cycling circles that they now extend over a period of several days and are always accompanied by the greatest gayety. Sedalia has good roads and a fine mile track with a grand stand which seats 10,000 people.

The managers of the meet are making rapid progress in completing the programme, which will be issued in two weeks. On the first day, July 2, there will be an inspection run through the city, the ride embracing the fair grounds and Association park. The afternoon of the first day will be spent in making the run of twelve miles to McAllister Springs. Supper will be served at this summer resort and the return to Sedalia will be made by a special train.

Runs to various points are on the programme for Monday morning, and for the afternoon a road race will probably be arranged. On Monday evening a gigantic L. A. W. smoker will be held at the Park hotel. E. N. Sanders will assist the Sedalia riders to make it a success and will provide a unique athletic entertainment.

The parade, business meeting and photograph will occupy the morning of July 4, and in the afternoon the races at the fair grounds will be the attraction. The parade will start promptly at 9 a. m., July 4, and prizes will be offered to clubs having the best impersonation in the line. The officers will be:

Referee—Robert Holm.
Judges—J. L. Douglass, Columbia; J. P. Sidwell, Kansas City; M. J. Gilbert, St. Louis.

Timers—A. C. Davis, St. Louis; Joe H. Kelly, Sedalia; E. P. Moriarity, Kansas City.

Failed to Solve It.

Dr. S. O. Goodwin, of cancer fame, who was referred to at length in the DEMOCRAT of last Friday, is thus written of in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch of Sunday:

The young gentleman while not so famous as his father is said to be equally as handsome and in every way calculated to perpetuate the honors of the family. The DEMOCRAT congratulates the genial attorney and trusts that the lad will live to years of distinction.

BOTH MEN ESCAPED.

SUSPICIOUS STRANGERS SUSPOSED TO BE HORSETHIEVES.

ONE RIDING A RACE MARE.

They Elude the Police—A Chase Ensnues—Description of the Men and the Horses.

About 10 o'clock last night there arrived in the city three strangers on horseback. They dismounted at Bowers' stable on West Main street, and put up their horses for the night. They then went to Riley's hotel and registered as follows:

F. G. Randall and C. G. Carney, Passaic, Mo.; H. Tuskison, Warrensburg.

This morning about breakfast time the three men appeared upon the street and by their peculiar actions attracted the attention of Officers Englebrecht and Jerry Green. The men separated at Second and Ohio street, two of them going to Third and turning east to Lamine, while one went directly east on Second. When they came in sight of each other on Lamine they signalled by whistling. The officers at once took them into custody and went to Bowers' stable, where the men said they had left their horses. They were separated and each closely questioned. Their stories conflicted in many particulars as to their destination, several places being given.

The strangers asked to be allowed to get breakfast and the officers permitted them to go, thinking that the horses would remain in the stable. The two Passaic men returned, however, in a short time and ordered their horses fed. They mounted immediately afterwards and went east at a rapid gait. Officer Jerry Green soon discovered it and getting a horse, gave chase, but the men escaped and he was unable to get any trace of them.

Tuskison was identified by Chief of Police DeLong and found to be all right. He stated that he met the two men at Montserrat and rode in company with them to Sedalia. The men told him that they were from Butler, in Bates county. One of them was dressed in light clothes, is about 5 feet and 11 inches high, has his mustache dyed; complexion, light; wore rubber boots and a broad brimmed black hat. The other had very light hair, wore a white hat and a black suit of clothes, was slenderly built and about 5 feet and 8 inches high.

The horses were both in good condition. One was a chestnut 13½ hands high. Tuskison says that he saw this same mare, which is 12 years old, take second money in a running race at the Clinton fair last year. She is a good runner. The other horse was a three-year-old light sorrel, with white hind feet.

Chief of Police De Long says that horse stealing is now a nightly occurrence throughout the country, and from the actions of the two Passaic men there is doubtless a story behind their presence in Sedalia.

Mortgagee's Sale.

Having failed to get a purchaser for the Farnham & Crawford stock in bulk, I shall for the next ten days, at the old stand on Second street, sell Folding Beds (children's and adults), Hall Trees, Pier Glasses, Side Boards, Office Desks (rolling tops), Bedroom Sets, Dressers, Book Cases, Cheffoniers, Cabinets, Office Chairs, Baby Buggies, Wardrobes, Dining Tables, Kitchen and Stand Tables, Washstands, Bureaus, Bedsteads, Safes, Mattresses, Pillows, Pictures, Looking Glasses, Bed Springs, Parlor Suits, Lounges, Fancy and Plain Chairs, Rockers, Cribs, Wood and Cane-seated Chairs, Dining Chairs, Music Stands, Easels, Commodes, Brackets, Hat Racks, Clock Shelves, Medicine Cases, Wall Pockets, Towel Racks, and a thousand and one household articles for ornament and use.

$10,000

Worth of fine furniture of the latest style and finish must be sold at once. The stock is full, elegant and good. The misfortune which overtook the worthy members of the firm of Farnham & Crawford in the shape of financial embarrassments put me in charge of this stock as trustee. The sale is therefore a MORTGAGE SALE. Every one knows what that means. It is, in a nut shell, that the goods will be sold not at cost or above cost but FAR BELOW FACTORY PRICES. This is precisely what is going to happen. It is the first chance in Sedalia for real bargains in furniture. This is no advertisement to be discounted 50 per cent. It is, on the other hand, a statement of fact made by me in reference to a matter that all generous people regret. No one should want to see reputable merchants fail. No one should want to see prices demoralized by the forced slaughter of goods. But it cannot be helped, and since it is so, what are you going to do about it? If you are shrewd you will put your fingers in the pie, since it is baked and ready and mighty fine pie, too.

As the adage has it: "Make hay while the sun shines."
As the proverb saith: "It is an ill wind that blows nobody any good."
As the maxim puts it: "A penny saved is as good as two earned."

Or as the immortal bard has written it:

"There is a tide in the affairs of men
Which, taken at its flood, leads on to fortune;
Omitted, all the voyage of their life
Is bound in shallows and is miseries."

In plain English, you have a chance to save some money and will you act wise or otherwise?

Henry Lamm, Trustee.

Coffins and undertaking goods from 25 to 50 per cent. below regular prices and a heavy line, well selected on hand, also covered by the mortgage and bound to be sold.

THE RIGHT MOVE.

A PLAN FOR BETTER COUNTY ROADS.

IN THE COUNTY COURT.

Important Roads Leading Into the City to be Macadamized.

It has long been a debated and important question to the business men of Sedalia to devise means by which the roads leading into the city from the east, north, west and south could be put into such condition as to allow unimpeded traffic throughout all seasons of the year. The territory surrounding Sedalia is an agricultural one and the commercial interests are largely dependent upon the farmers. Their stock, their grain, etc., has to be transported over the county roads and when by reason of rains and snows these latter become practically impassable, such traffic ceases. Good roads, macadam or other, would remove this. Not only would it do this for the farmers living immediately along these roads, but it would cause farmers who usually take their products to other towns to come to Sedalia because of the fact that though the distance might be longer the distance of bad roads would be shorter and the trip could be made in much less time and without injury to draft horses and wagons.

Recognizing this, D. M. Williams, the agricultural implement dealer and one of our progressive citizens, will appear before the county court at its next session and ask the county in connection with the city to take action in the matter. Mr. Williams' plan is to take four or five of our principal roads and macadamize them for a distance of two and one-half miles into the country. These roads are to be districted and placed under the supervision of a competent man who will take an interest in keeping them in good condition. Under the present system, some overseers have almost 40 miles of road under their care and as a result none of them are desirable to travel over except for a few months in the year. With the city and county acting in concert, Mr. Williams hopes to see the improvements made without great delay.

Patrick McEnroe, owner of the rock quarries, was seen by a representative of the DEMOCRAT, and found to be enthusiastically in favor of the project. Mr. McEnroe's quarries have in them a quality of stone that will last for years. He will offer such inducements in supplying macadam that it will practically be giving it away. One of the important roads to be improved runs near his quarries and Mr. McEnroe is not slow to say that the benefit to himself would be great. The benefit happily, however, applies to all as well as one.

Something of a Snake Story.

On last Friday T. J. Mitchner, of South Frisco, who was on his way to Warsaw, had quite a thrilling adventure with a huge snake, says the Cross Timbers Record.

Mr. Mitchner was driving along in his wagon when he saw the snake lying at the side of the road. He stopped his team, thinking he would get out and kill it. His snakeship did not wait to be attacked, but at the first moment made a dart for the wagon. The horses started and at that instant the wheel threw the snake forward and it coiled itself around the front axle.

The driver unloosed his team, secured a pole and attempted to strike it; this caused the reptile to uncoil and follow the coupling pole back to the hind axle, where it again coiled. A few vigorous punches caused it to leave there and wind itself into the wagon box, where by a few well directed blows it was dispatched. Mr. Mitchner estimated it at six feet in length, and says he hasn't lost any snakes.

Mr. Heard in Warsaw.

Hon. John T. Heard arrived in Warsaw last Monday noon and stayed until six p. m., says the Warsaw Enterprise, when he was driven to Lincoln, and was the guest of Fred Brill for the night.

During the stay a number of democrats, candidates and their friends, called on him in reference to the various postoffices, and others to hear his views in regard to pending legislation.

It was noticeable that while Mr. Heard was willing to talk about offices, it was very easy to get him off on the subjects of pasture and cattle, and he liked to dwell on those subjects, in which he is interested financially. He thinks the administration should place the appointing power with some parties, and if it does not want the members of congress to have anything to do about it, well and good.

A Narrow Escape.

During the storm one night last week Special Officer Finch, assigned to patrol Broadway, came near losing his life in front of J. C. Thompson's residence. A limb as large as a man's thigh fell from one of the big shade trees and the branches struck the officer in their decent. Had he been standing a little nearer he might not have lived to tell the tale.

ST. LOUIS CLOTHING COMPANY,

I. FRENSDORF, - - - - - Manager.

THE RAILROADS.

Supintendent H. G. Clark returned on a special last night from a tour of inspection west.

Tommy Hall, of the Cotton Belt, came in from St. Louis yesterday afternoon for a short visit with Sedalia friends.

Col. John S. Elliott, the Boonville contractor, came in from Boonville this morning and left for home during the forenoon.

The train from the north, due at 7 o'clock last night, did not arrive until 9:45 o'clock. The breaking down of the engine caused the delay.

Missouri Pacific train No. 3, due here at 3:15 a. m., came in one and one-half hours late this morning. The heavy rains, and a freight train laying the passenger out, caused the delay.

There were two sections of No. 8 east last night. The first came in on time, at 12:40 o'clock, but the second waited at Kansas City for connections and did not reach here until 4:40 o'clock this morning.

Had Hot Words.

The DEMOCRAT learns that Traffic Manager Miller and Passenger Agent Faulkner had quite a lively exchange of words in St. Louis Saturday. Faulkner wanted to know about his alleged resignation, which has had so much newspaper notoriety, and one word brought on another until Miller asked Mr. Faulkner to present the resignation without delay. Faulkner declined to do so, it is said, but remarked that he was ready to be discharged, and didn't care how soon he received his walking papers.

The "Katy" Squabble.

The Railway Age undertakes to settle the Barker controversy in the following words: "Mr. James Barker, general passenger agent of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago, has been appointed general passenger and ticket agent of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas, with headquarters at St. Louis, Mo. The position is now held by Mr. O. A. Faulkner. The St. Louis papers deny that the appointment has been made, but we have the authority of Mr. Barker for making the statement." This certainly places Traffic Manager Miller in a peculiar light as he lost no time in denying the rumor of the appointment.

He Got Another One.

Officer Scally appears to have it in for the mail clerks on the Missouri Pacific. Early Sunday morning one of them jumped off an east-bound train for the purpose of getting a cup of coffee, but no sooner had he struck ground than he landed in the clutches of Officer Scally, who had mistaken him for a tramp. An apology from Scally, coupled with a "tufer" cigar, squared the matter, though.

It will pay you to try S. K. headache Tablets.

McNutt to Marry.

George S. McNutt, representing the passenger department of the M., K. & T. at Kansas City, will be married on the 28th inst. to Miss Lowry, of Texas. The marriage has quite a romantic tinge. The young people met in Hardin college at Mexico, Mo., where Mr. McNutt was endeavoring to secure the business for his road of transporting a crowd of Texas girls from Mexico home at the end of the scholastic year. It was a case of love at first sight, and Miss Lowry not only induced the party to travel by the Missouri, Kansas and Texas but decided to accept its representative as a husband. The pair were offered $1,000 in presents to consent to a marriage in the college parlors, but refused.

A Priest Resigns.

Rev. Father John J. Lilly, who is well known in Sedalia, and who has for the past fifteen years been pastor of the Catholic church at Lexington, has resigned and accepted the pastorate of the Catholic church at Springfield, Mo. Father Lilly was last Saturday presented with a gold watch by the citizens of Lexington as a mark of their esteem for him. Ex-Congressman Alexander Graves made the presentation speech.

POOR OLD PARSONS

Likelihood of the Town Being Made a Whistling Station.

The bluster that the town lot boomers of Parsons recently indulged in, to the effect that they would force the M., K. & T. to remove its general offices from St. Louis back to the Kansas village or cause the road to forfeit its charter, gives promise of bringing forth a fruitful crop of thistles for the bluffers in the very near future.

The DEMOCRAT learns from a source that is perfectly reliable that steps have already been taken by President Rouse and the executive board of the M., K. & T. that will result in Parsons becoming scarcely more than a whistling station on the road, and this, too, in the near future.

This step, according to the DEMOCRAT's authority, is to change the division terminal points, in which event Parsons will be left out in the cold entirely.

The plan is to have the first division south of here extend to Fort Scott instead of Parsons, the second from Fort Scott to Chetopa, the third and fourth being divisions of 100 miles each extending from Chetopa to Denison.

The above programme is to be exclusively for freight crews, while the passenger divisions will be from Hannibal to Sedalia, from Sedalia to Chetopa and from Chetopa to Denison.

The above has practically been decided upon, it is said, and then if the town lot boomers endeavor to make further trouble they will lose the company shops, which will be removed to Sedalia, Fort Scott or Chetopa.
